lack of basic infrastructures. He intends to empower and re-orientate the youths and channel their energy towards nation's building

- SENATORIAL ASPIRANT (2014)

- Sunday Adebomi is a man who has had varying experience at the grassroots during his interactions as a cocoa merchant after his secondary education before he travelled abroad. His in-depth interaction with the grassroots during this period has adequately intimated him with the problems the masses are facing and his subsequent exposure to the system that is operational nationally and abroad always assists him to provide appropriate solutions to most problems. This propelled him to contest for Senate seat in his constituency (Ekiti South)

Adebomi's managerial acumen and experience that have made him successful in the private sector is always an advantage to the Ekiti people and to the nation. Undoubtedly, Nigeria at this stage of our development needs a visionary and purposeful leadership that can give us valuable representation at the national and I want to assure you that my wealthy experience and interaction with the people at the local, national and international levels over the years will be of great asset in the course of discharging my constitutional duties.

- UNITED STATE ARMY

- As a member of U.S.A. Army, Sunday Adebomi served in different capacities. For examples:
- He served as an instructor: trained over 5,000 warriors during Pre-Mobilization; earned the most outstanding instructor for his unique way of training and instilling confidence on the warriors; provided technical and tactical guidance to warriors in the accomplishment of their missions (01/2010 to 09/2012).

- COMMUNITY AND HUMANITARIAN SERVICES

Sunday Adebomi is obviously one of the dynamic youths with altruistic disposition. His major concerns have been how to develop and assist the downtrodden masses within the reach of his God-given resources.

It is no longer news that, this humble selfless man has empowered the youths, women, widows, and different artisan organizations across the length and breadth of Ekiti and Nigeria as a whole even before conceived the idea of serving his country. He has been giving an interest-free loan and insecticides to assist the cocoa buyers and farmers.

- Also, Sunday Adebomi has used his good connections based on his experience abroad to help many Nigerians to travel to different countries of the world in search for greener pastures. The latest is 11 people that just got their visas in November 2023. He always sponsors all these people in His God given resources.
- Sunday Adebomi had put smiles into so many people across the country. He had sponsored so many students up to their University level; provide yearly bursary to students from Ekiti State; sponsored so many apprentice and make sure he provide equipment for them after they finish learning just to mention but few.
- Many Nigerian in the U.S.A will not forget in a hurry the various assistant Adebomi has rendered to them in the areas of employment and accommodation.
- It is interesting to note that, Sunday Adebomi as a young boy with his little resources used to organize football clubs and viewing centers where the soccer fans could freely watch football matches in Ise and Ikere Ekiti. Likewise, he is fond of organizing free coaching programs for those students preparing for their final Ordinary Level Examination.
